New Destination Lodge Expands the Ayres Collection of Hotels and Resorts Beyond California

October 18, 2021 (Costa Mesa, CA) – Ayres Hotels announced it has expanded its collection of boutique hotels and resorts to include Olympic Lodge in Port Angeles, Washington. The fifth generation of the Ayres family continues its legendary tradition of impeccable hospitality and commitment to the communities that are home to their 24 lodging properties. The acquisition is the first destination lodge outside of Ayres home base in California.

“Our family was immediately taken by the natural beauty of Port Angeles and the warmth of its people. The Olympic Lodge is a high quality property with many attributes that fit perfectly in our collection of accommodations,” said Principal, Chase Ayres.

Olympic Lodge is located at the gateway to Olympic National Park, consistently in the top ten most visited National Parks in the US. The park boasts nearly a million acres of protected wilderness and distinctly diverse ecosystems that include old-growth rain forests, glaciers, and over 70 miles of pristine coastline. With over 2.5 million visitors to the park last year, Olympic Lodge is perfectly positioned to host guests seeking comfort as they explore the National Park and surrounding area. The planned direct flights from Seattle-Tacoma International Airport (SeaTac) on Dash Air Shuttle, which services the Pacific Northwest, will facilitate quick access to the pristine hamlet. Dash intends to serve the Port Angeles-Seattle market with four daily flights for key flight connections at SeaTac.

Olympic Lodge is where rustic meets luxury. The lodge features 105 guest rooms and honeymoon suite, complimentary breakfast service, meeting rooms and business facilities, a 24-hour fitness center, a heated outdoor pool and hot tub, and exceptional landscaped grounds to take in the natural beauty.

"The prior owner's history and values are very similar to that of our family, making for a smooth transition for everyone involved. We are thrilled to have the Olympic Lodge in our collection of boutique hotels and resorts," said Ayres.
